

HUMAN TRAFFICKING TRAINING

March 7, 2017
9:00AM - 12:00PM

in Wedgwood's Nagel Chapel

A training for Health Care and Social Work professionals in the state of Michigan that fulfills the new trafficking training requirements, lead by Wedgwood's Manasseh Project Coordinator, Nikeidra Battle-DeBarge & Manasseh Project Trauma Recovery Center Clinician, Ashley Anderson

In this training, professionals will:

- ▶ Understand how 'trafficking' is legally defined
- ▶ Understand the continuum of victimization in the life of a exploited person
- ▶ Gain skills and language to advocate effectively for victims
- ▶ Broaden knowledge on the root causes of trafficking
- ▶ Learn the arenas for exploitation
- ▶ Build skills to identify and intervene in the life of a victim
- ▶ Understand the worldview/trauma of a victim

COST: $30 for training
$40 for training and CE's

TO REGISTER

Email INSTITUTE@WEDGWOOD.ORG or call 616-942-2110

Questions? Contact Ruth: 616-831-5654

WWW.WEDGWOOD.ORG/TRAINING